Mission. The mission of the Florida Folk Festival is to provide a Florida heritage-based celebration while conserving and interpreting Florida's diverse folk cultures and traditions.

Purpose. The Florida Folk Festival celebrates the folk songs, music, dance, stories, crafts, foodways and other forms of traditional expression that reflect the folklife of Florida. The festival's primary purpose is to present Florida folk artists and other keepers of Florida's traditional knowledge to the public. This is accomplished through performances and demonstrations by folk artists and other tradition bearers.

Florida folklife is defined in Florida law as "the traditional expressive culture shared within the various groups in Florida: familial, ethnic, occupational, religious and regional. Expressive culture includes a wide range of creative and symbolic forms such as custom, belief, technical skill, language, literature, art, architecture, music, play, dance, drama, ritual, pageantry, and handicrafts, which forms are generally learned orally, by imitation or in performance and are maintained or perpetuated without formal instruction or institutional direction."

Florida Fine Arts – In 2019 the Florida Folk Festival will provide an area for Florida's painters, sculptors and other fine artists to showcase and sell their works depicting Florida's environment, history, culture and the "spirit" of Floridians.

Selection of Craft, Luthier, Marketplace Vendors, Fine Artists and Traditional Arts

Demonstrators. An invitation is based on the applicant's ability to present regional, ethnic or occupational folk traditions of Florida, and on the quality of the craft items to be sold or demonstrated. Priority is given to applicants who demonstrate the methods, tools and techniques of their craft or art while at the Festival. Applicants must be available to demonstrate their craft during all three days of the Festival, and must demonstrate a significant relationship to Florida such as residency. Festival Marketplace vendors may sell popular fine arts and crafts, recordings, publications and other items deemed appropriate by festival coordinators.

Vendor, Exhibitor and Demonstrator selection is based on how well the craft, exhibit or demonstration represents traditional arts and culture in Florida, the appropriateness of the activity to the Festival, and the total variety of crafts to be included in the Festival. As it pertains to artists and retail sellers who present studio or fine crafts, selection priority is given to crafts made using natural materials such as clay, metal, wood, leather and fiber arts, and to those crafters whose work is inspired by cultural traditions or by the natural environment. Mass produced and commercial resale items are not permitted. Only handmade items are permitted in all craft areas. No exceptions are allowed, including items available for sale to children.

An invitation to participate as a Luthier Exhibitor is based on the applicant's ability to construct high-quality, hand-made stringed musical instruments.

An invitation to participate as a Fine Artist is based on the applicant's ability to depict Florida's environment, history, culture and the "spirit" of Floridians in visual works.

Selection of Environmental Awareness & Cultural Heritage Exhibitors An invitation as an Environmental Awareness or Cultural Heritage Exhibitor is based on the applicant's ability to present educational exhibits as a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting environmental protection and cultural conservation and awareness, particularly as it applies to the Festival Mission Statement, which is: "to provide a heritage-based celebration while conserving and interpreting Florida's diverse folk cultures and traditions."

Other organizations outside of this scope, including political action groups, are allowed to provide information and exhibits for Festival visitors. Those exhibits and information booths will be located in an area designated by the Park Manager. Members of other organizations and political action groups who are working on behalf of their organization or group at the Festival are required to pay regular Festival admission fees.

Selection of Craft Square Demonstrators

An invitation is based on the applicant's ability to present regional, ethnic or occupational folk traditions of Florida and/or the quality of the craft items to be sold or demonstrated. Participants must have demonstrated in the Craft Square program at least 12 days during the previous 12 months, or must be a recipient of the Florida Folk Heritage Award. Priority is given to applicants from Florida who are available to demonstrate their craft during all three days of the Festival, and who demonstrate the methods, tools and techniques of their craft while at the Festival.

Note: Due to limitations in space, participation in the Craft Square demonstration program does not guarantee invitation to the 2019 Festival. Demonstrators expressing their desire to participate in the program through the application process will be ranked according to their level of participation in the ongoing craft demonstration program at Stephen Foster Folk Culture Center State Park.

Selling spears, bows and arrows, knives, guns and other items that may appear dangerous are not allowed by any vendor at the festival.
